To ensure a safe environment for our students, background checks will be conducted on all applicants prior to employment.

At The Ecology School we work with a diversity of participants from a variety of communities and look to hire people from a range of backgrounds with a hope to reflect those communities. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, national origin, genetics, disability, age, or veteran status. We look forward to reviewing your application.

The Ecology School inspires stewardship of and connection to the natural world through nature-based, living lessons about ecology, conservation, farming, and sustainability.
